Once you have at least 1 of each type of Demonic Organs (3 in D3, 4 in RoS) visit the Jeweler to craft them into a Hellfire Ring. The chance of looting it is exactly the same as the chance of looting keys for Infernal Machines (you can find the table above). Now, the Keywardens drop the machines directly. Players can farm for the keys and organs much more efficiently in multiplayer games, both for the faster killing speed and since every player in the game has a chance at each item dropping, and all characters in the game can pass through the same portal(s) to the Uber battles. Activate the Infernal Machine(s) to open a red portal to one of the Realms. The Machines are used to open red portals to special dungeon areas where Ubers, super powered versions of certain quest bosses, must be defeated. Obtain a key from each Keywarden. The fight follows the same rules of every other boss fights, so that hero cannot be resurrected by himself. Infernal Machines only drop on the Torment difficulties. Slay the Ubers in the realm, and cross your fingers for a Demonic Organ to drop along with the other loot. As far as Infernal Machine and Hellfire Ring goes, which were both added in the vanilla version of the game (as one of the major patches), they have been altered slightly with the addition of Reaper of Souls. There is only one kind of Infernal Machine in D3, and the portal opened is random. The chance of looting the keys is as follows: (numbers from September 2015 Difficulty level Chance Torment I 25% Torment II 28% Torment III 33% Torment IV 38% Torment V 43% Torment VI 50% Torment VII 60% Torment VIII 70% Torment IX 80% Torment X 90% As you can see, finding a Machine can be quite difficult on lower difficulty levels.
